39TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE
April 28 – May 2, 2025 | San Marcos, TX

BIOGRAPHY & COURSE DESCRIPTION

Please include a biography and a course description to be included in the conference workbook.

BIOGRAPHY

- Should be between 100 and 300 words
- Should be written in the third person (Jane, he/she/it/they)

Speaker Biography Example (from www.biotemplates.com)

Jane Smith

Jane Smith is a small business coach who helps women make the transition from full-time mom to successful entrepreneur. A grandmother now, Jane started her coaching business in 2002 to help other women deal with the sometimes overwhelming prospect of starting a new business while still running a household. Prior to raising her family, Jane spent over ten years as a teacher, corporate trainer and workshop leader. Today Jane offers a wide range of coaching programs and services – from individual coaching, to seminars and keynote speeches. To contact Jane, please visit her coaching website at www.janesmart.com

COURSE DESCRIPTION

- Should be between 100 and 300 words
- Avoid first person or pronouns (we, us); instead try the workshop, this session, participants
- Should be written in present tense (invites vs invited)
- Title should be short but descriptive

Course Description Example (from www.ufonline.ufl.edu)

Applying Ecosystem Services

This workshop invites participation from individuals with experience and/or interest in (1) the application of ecosystem service valuation to inform policy, planning, and management; and (2) maintaining a robust community of practice for ocean, coastal, and Great Lakes social science. A combination of presentations, facilitated discussion, exercises, and sharing of resources and results will provide the Interagency Working Group on Ocean Social Sciences with recommendations specific to Ecosystem Services to take forward to the Federal Agencies, and will provide participants with concepts, cases, and networks to further the application of their own work.
